India's first notified wildlife sanctuary and national park established in the year 1936, brings opportunity to hold the largest tiger population in the vicinity. Corbett remains open from mid-Nov to mid-Jun, the main reason for closure of the park during the rest of the year is that monsoon makes most of the roads get washed away. Nainital : is referred to as the lake of three sages, or the Tri Rishi Sarovar as mentioned in the Manas Khand chapter of the Skanda Purana. As recorded in history, the three sages, Atri, Pulastya, and Pulaha stopped over at Nainital on their pilgrimage, to quench their thirst. Finding no water, they dug a hole and transferred some water into it to from the sacred lake of Tibet, Mansarovar. Thus the famous lake of Nainital came into existence. Another legend has it that the left eye of Lord Shiva's wife Sati fell in this center and formed an emerald eye shaped lake, and thus emerged the city of Nainital. Recent history records reveal that Nainital was brought into limelight by P. Barron, a British sugar merchant, in 1839. The beauty of Nainital with the central lake cushioned among the forests attracted this person to build a house named Pilgrim's Cottage and settle in Nainital.
