☰ Daywise Itinerary

Day 1 Delhi - Nainital (320Km. – 7hrs.)

Travel by surface from Delhi to Nainital the most beautiful hill station of Kumaon. Nainital : is referred to as the lake of three sages, or the Tri Rishi Sarovar as mentioned in the Manas Khand chapter of the Skanda Purana. As recorded in history, the three sages, Atri, Pulastya, and Pulaha stopped over at Nainital on their pilgrimage, to quench their thirst. Finding no water, they dug a hole and transferred some water into it to from the sacred lake of Tibet, Mansarovar. Thus the famous lake of Nainital came into existence. Another legend has it that the left eye of Lord Shiva's wife Sati fell in this center and formed an emerald eye shaped lake, and thus emerged the city of Nainital. Recent history records reveal that Nainital was brought into limelight by P. Barron, a British sugar merchant, in 1839. The beauty of Nainital with the central lake cushioned among the forests attracted this person to build a house named Pilgrim's Cottage and settle in Nainital.

Day 5 Kausani - Corbett (180kms – 5hrs)

After breakfast check out from hotel then drive to Corbett National park. Corbett National park: A promising land for the world species at Ramnagar in Nainital district in Uttarakhand. The Corbett National Park is the most dwindling part of nature residing at the Himalayan foot hills & Shivalik ranges and is being called as the perfect tiger's land. India's first notified wildlife sanctuary and National Park established in the year 1936, brings opportunity to hold the largest tiger population in the vicinity. Corbett remains open from mid-Nov to mid-Jun, the main reason for closure of the park during the rest of the year is that monsoon makes most of the roads get washed away. After monsoon, the repair work starts and it is only by Nov that roads are back in motive conditions. Arrive at Corbett transfer to hotel, check in to hotel. Rest of the day is free to explore scenic sights & leisure, overnight stay at hotel at Corbett.
